Class Action Lawsuits: Strategies, Advice and Insights

Featuring the Hon. Kathleen M. Dailey, Hon. Henry Kantor, Professor Robert Klonoff and David Sugerman

Class action lawsuits can feel both foreign and intimidating for those who first or infrequently defend class action cases. Strategies to successfully defend and manage class action cases are critical. Issues such as class certification, scope of the class and discovery issues are significant issues. Even crafting settlements can be challenging. This seminar focuses on strategies, advice and practical insights and recommendations for litigators who infrequently face class action lawsuits or for those involved in their first class action case.
